After Hours with Howard Iceberg & the Titanics

Tuesday, May 17, 9:00 p.m.

Legendary Kansas City songwriter Howard Iceberg brings the latest incarnation of his band, the Titanics, to the library for an acoustic evening of his songs. Come listen to Iceberg's powerful lyrics and unique voice, backed by stellar, local musicians Pat Tomek, Gary Paredes and Matt Kesler. Everyone who attends will receive a free copy of the band's latest CD.

After Hours Latin Jazz with Calle Vida

Tuesday, June 21, 9:00 p.m.

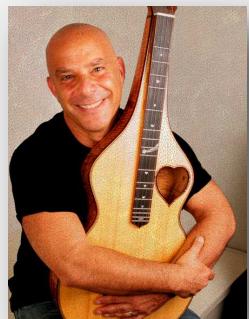

KC Latin jazz pioneer Pablo Sanhueza presents his new band, Calle Vida. Calle Vida will fill the library with high energy dance music, blending Afro-Latin rhythms with funk and electronica. In addition to vocalist Sanhueza, who also plays bass and percussion, the band includes Evan Hoffman on drums, Trevor Sphere on guitar, loops and keyboard and Estafan Palen on trombone and keyboard.

An Evening with Jeff Porter

Tuesday, July 19, 6:30 p.m.

Olathe native Jeff Porter, lead guitarist for The Rainmakers, comes to the library to play songs from his new CD, "Even with the Wind," and other selections from his 40-year career. Porter, inducted twice into the Kansas Music Hall of Fame, is a well-traveled singer, songwriter and story teller known for his flowing melodies, distinctive guitar licks, deft keyboard work and easy-on-the-ears vocals.

Dulcimer Music with Kevin Roth

Tuesday, Aug. 16, 6:30 p.m.

Kevin Roth has performed twice at the White House. Young PBS fans may recognize his voice; he sang the theme song for the hit PBS show, Shining Time Station. His latest CD, Awakenings, features Roth on piano and dulcimer. Noel Paul Stookey, of Peter, Paul and Mary, co-produced the recording. Stookey called the album, "jaw dropingly beautiful." www.kevinrothmusic.com
