Join us on May 22 for our next WISE webinar!

During this month's webinar, we'll present information about Social Security's Ticket to Work (Ticket) program and other Work Incentives that can help you as you start on the path to financial independence through work. In connection with Mental Health Month, we'll also cover information and resources that may help people with mental illness as they make the decision to find work and transition to the workplace.

We'll talk about:

- The role of employment in the recovery process
- The therapeutic, financial and social benefits of work
- The importance of long-term employment supports after you start working

Questions?

The Ticket program supports career development for people ages 18 through 64 who receive Social Security disability benefits (SSDI/SSI) and want to work. Monthly WISE webinars offer you the opportunity to learn more about Social Security programs, Work Incentives and other resources that may help you or someone you know on the path to financial independence through work.
