

Join Us This Fall for the 15th Anniversary of Kansas City Disability Mentoring Day Events

August, 2019

Dear Employer:

The Disability Mentoring Day committee appreciates your commitment to hiring individuals with disabilities. You are proving that individuals with disabilities are an excellent resource for valuable, dependable, and dedicated employees. Hiring individuals with disabilities will increase your customer base and loyalty, as well as employee diversity, job performance and satisfaction.

October is National Disability Employment Awareness Month. Disability Mentoring Day (DMD) promotes employment and entrepreneurial opportunities for job seekers with disabilities through information sharing, networking and career exploration.

Greater Kansas City Disability Mentoring Day will be celebrated on:

- Friday, October 18, 2019, at MidAmerica Nazarene University, Bell Cultural Events Center, Center, 2030 College Way, Olathe, Kansas
- Wednesday October 30, 2019 at the Ewing Marion Kauffman Foundation Conference Center, 4801 Rockhill Road, Kansas City, Missouri

Participating offers you the opportunity to show your commitment to hiring individuals with disabilities.

- Reserve a table for $200 at one event or $350 for both
- Special Prices for Small Businesses
$50 – 30 to 50 Employees, $25 – Less than 30 Employees
- You can also support DMD by becoming a sponsor. For more information about sponsorship, visit the DMDKC website www.DMDinKC.org

Registration deadlines are October 4th for the Kansas event and October 16th for the Missouri event. Space is limited.

Always looking for employers, especially HR Recruiters, to volunteer in the area of mock interviews, resume and application assistance at DMD. If interested, please contact me.
