

Legal Services - Seniors receive legal consultation and representation, education, and assistance with civil cases and access to public benefits, including issues such as housing, social security, Medicare/Medicaid, powers-of-attorney, living wills, and consumer advocacy. Services are provided by Kansas Legal Services (KLS) on a donation basis. To be eligible for legal services, a client must live in Johnson County and be 60 years of age or older.

Appointments can be scheduled at several locations throughout Johnson County.

To schedule an appointment, contact the center you wish to visit. Be sure to provide the name of the older adult age 60+ for whom the service is requested. Clients are not billed for services, but contributions are gratefully accepted.

To apply for Kansas Legal Services, call their central intake line at 1-800-723-6953.
