A Community Open Virtual Forum for Community Partners/Organizations Working with DCF Clients

The Department for Children and Families is holding its annual virtual Micro Soft Teams Community Open Forum to discuss changes during the past year and a half for benefits and services offered by DCF. If you work with families or adults, then you will not want to miss this session. Meetings are open to all those who work with families, children, and individuals needing services in our community. As our community partner your input and feedback is appreciated and valued.
