Yes, it is true, we are hiring.

Primary Purpose: The community organizer works to build the collective power of immigrants to impact the public narrative and change policy to create welcoming communities with concrete benefits for immigrants. The Community Organizer will work collaboratively with faith communities, immigrants' rights groups, voter engagement organizations and other partners to increase immigrant civic engagement and develop leaders. The Community Organizer will work to engage impacted leaders and allies in educating decision makers about the importance of supporting welcoming policies for immigrants. The Community Organizer will help train, recruit, mobilize, and develop leaders from immigrant communities.

Interested people should send a cover letter and resume to info@airrkc.org.
