

Johnson County Housing Authority Opening of the Housing Choice Voucher Program Waiting List

Effective Wednesday, July 12, 2023, the Johnson County Housing Authority will accept online applications for its Housing Choice Voucher Program Waiting List from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM CST. The first 1,000 applications submitted will be placed on the waiting list. The Johnson County Housing Authority provides rental assistance to qualified applicants who wish to live within its jurisdiction. The City of Olathe has its own housing authority and is NOT within the jurisdiction of the Johnson County Housing Authority.

Preference will be given to applicants with the following:

- RESIDENCY – An applicant who lives in Johnson County excluding the City of Olathe. Additionally, applicants who work or have been hired to work in a residence preference area will be treated as residents of the preference area. (Verified by current driver's license, current state identification, current lease, current utility bill, or employment verification.)
- SURVIVOR OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE – Domestic violence means actual or threatened violence directed at the applicant or another member of his/her household. The domestic violence should have occurred recently (within the last 12 months) or be of a continuous nature. By claiming the survivor of domestic violence preference, the applicant must certify that the perpetrator will not reside with the applicant family unless the Housing Authority gives advanced written approval; the Johnson County Housing Authority may terminate assistance for breach of this agreement. (Verified by Domestic Violence Shelter or Police Report.)
- ELDERLY AND/OR DISABLED – An applicant who is at least 62 years of age and/or disabled. (Verified by birth certificate, Social Security Administration, or Medical Assessor.)
